

1-4941

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

OFFICE OF DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

January 18, 1951

Mr. Hugh Fenwick
Imperial Airways, Inc.
612 Congress Building
Miami 32, Florida

Dear Hugh:

Bill has asked me to write you and thank you for your letter of the 9th. He surmises that by this time you have taken off for Egypt, so this will probably be following you around the world.

I have written to your [redacted], and will have somebody interview him within the next few weeks. He seems to have an interesting background and might be of use.

STAT

If you ever come back from the Middle East and find yourself in Washington, do let me know.

Sincerely,

[redacted]

STAT

JL/vlg

CC: Mr. Jackson ✓
Mr. [redacted]
Mr. [redacted] w/basic letter
Central Records

STAT

Official

File as per [redacted]